Supreme Court of Colorado Declares Him in Contempt for Printing Cartoons and Editorials-Appeal to Be Taken.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 22.—The Supreme Court to-day held United States Senator Thomas M. Patterson to be in contempt of court for printing certain cartoons and editorials in his two newspapers, and fined him $1.000, directing that he be committed to pail until the fine should be paid. Subsequently the court ordered a stay of execution for sixty days, pending an appeal by Senator Patterson to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Shortly before noon the court announced that the Patterson case would be called, and directed that an attachment be issued for the Senator when he falled to appear. Later the Senator when he falled to appear the Frotested against the service of an attachment, claiming that he was not attempting to avoid making an appearance, but the court reminded Senator Patterson that he had agreed to appear at a certain time. Considerable discussion and controversy followed as to just what had been agreed to between Senator Patterson's attorneys and the court, and Senator Patterson declared emphatically that he would go to juil rather than pay the fine imposed.

to jail rather than pay the fine imposed.

His attorneys also informed the court that Senator Patterson would exercise his constitutional right as a United States Senator to claim exemption from arrest while Congress was in session, and thereby have set aside the judgment of the court so that he might be enabled to be present when Congress convenes next week.

urther discussion followed and the Sen-Further discussion followed and the Sen-ator told the court that if a stay of ex-ceution was issued he would hasten an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, and if that body refused to take cognizance of his case, or decided the case against him, he would pay the fine immediately. The court agreed to this.

Returns Immediately From Atianta to Attend Meeting of World's Fair Chiefs-Organiza tion to Be Effected.

Isavid B. Francis had to go to Atianta, Ga., on Tuesday, and the chances were that he might not return to St. Louis before the end of this week. But a glance at his memorandum book reminded him that he must be back here in time to attend the annual banquet of the chiefs of departments of the World's Fair at the St. Louis Club on Thanksgiving evening, and he decided upon a quick journey to Atlanta and return. He left St. Louis on Tuesday afternoon, transacted his business in Atlanta yesterday, and is now traveling back with the expectation of arriving here this morning.

All the chiefs of departments of the World's Fair have promised to attend the banquet at the St. Louis Club this evening. At the banquet which they had last year, they agreed to assemble annually, and thus keep in touch with one another. At to-day's banquet they prebably will form an organization and determine upon a title for it.
